

The Baltimore Quaker Peace and Justice Committee is delighted to announce

---

AMERICAN POLITICAL TALK IN THE
AGE OF INFOTAINMENT

WITH LINGUIST KATHRYN RUUD

---

“If we do not have liberty of thought,
all of the liberties in the world will do us no good.
But once we are able to recognize the language of propaganda (and how it differs from standard political speech), we are far less likely to succumb to manipulation, regardless of whether it is coming from the right or the left.”

– Ms. Ruud, stoppolarizingtalk.org

---

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4

7:00 PM

STONY RUN FRIENDS MEETINGHOUSE

DINING ROOM (DOWNSTAIRS)

5116 N. CHARLES STREET

Kathryn Ruud is a linguistic scholar and contributor to the book At War with Words. She speaks to Americans about how to change the tone of our political dialogue for the better. Her blog is available at <http://www.stoppolarizingtalk.org>

The Baltimore Quaker Peace and Justice Committee is a joint committee of Homewood Friends Meeting, Stony Run Friends Meeting, and Old Town Friends Worship Group.